

Carla Williams is a lecturer who is intensely passionate about the development of human capital which is her outer purpose and in adding value to human lives which is her inner purpose. She has been able to find the balance between the two in her lecturing at the School of Business and Computer Science Limited. Certified at the Bachelor of Science Degree level in Sociology and Psychology (University of the West Indies) and at the Masters of Business Administration level with a specialism in Human Resource Management, (Oxford Brookes University United Kingdom), Miss Williams currently facilitates the Organisational Behaviour, Human Resource Development and Negotiation courses on the Edinburgh Business School's MBA and MSc. Programmes, and is most pleased to be in the service of all students.
