

FRANCISCA AMBROSE-GRANT

Francisca Ambrose-Grant joined the School of Business and Computer Science in 2002. She has taught the human resource modules in programmes at the Certificate, Diploma and Degree levels. She has been a human resource practitioner for over eighteen years and is a Human Resource Manager by profession. She possesses qualifications at the undergraduate and post graduate levels in Management/Human Resource Management, Educational Administration and leadership. She has had leadership training at the McGill University/University of Montreal