

Mr. Kevin Maraj: CA, FCCA, CIA, CISA, MBA, LLB, LPC

Currently Lecturing:

- ACCA, Foundations in Accountancy, Paper FA2 – Maintaining Financial Records

Academic Education:

- Master of Business - Heriot Watt University, Edinburgh Business School
- Bachelors of Law – University of London
- Legal Practicing Certificate – Staffordshire University

Professional Education:

- Fellow of the Association of Certified and Chartered Accountants (ACCA)
- Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA)
- Certified Internal Auditor (CIA)

Experience:

Kevin Maraj has been employed with PwC since 2005 and is currently a Director in the Advisory Services Group where he transferred to in 2011.

Prior to joining Advisory, Kevin worked in PwC's Risk and Control Services practice where he gained over five years' experience performing risk assessments, internal audit assurance and consulting reviews, IT audit reviews and regulatory compliance reviews.

Within Advisory, Kevin has project managed and led several engagements including, finance function effectiveness reviews, finance policy consulting projects, finance and taxation due diligences, receiverships, liquidations, valuations, forensics, structuring mandates, wider buy and sell side support and debt and organization restructuring engagements.

His experience covers clients in various industries including financial services (banking, credit union and insurance), manufacturing, energy, airline, telecoms, construction, education, judiciary and government.

He has been lecturing at SBCS for approximately 10 years on financial and management accounting at the FIA level. He has also lectured the final year accounting paper for the Bachelors' in Accounting degree at the University of the West Indies.